

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ST. MATTHEW CATHOLIC CHURCH

INTROIT

Ant. Da pacem, Dōmine, in diebus nostris: quia non est alius qui pugnet pro nobis, nisi tu, Deus noster.

Ant. Grant us peace, O Lord, in our days: for there is none other who will fight for us, if not thee, our God.

V. Ut quid Deus repulisti in finem: iratus est furor tuus super oves pascuæ tuæ?

V. O God, why hast thou cast us off forever: why is thy rage kindled against the sheep of thy flock?

the sins of the world, that he might save it: have mercy on us.

O Lord, who givest the sevenfold gift of the Spirit, by whom both heaven and earth are filled: have mercy on us.

O Christ, only Son of God the Father, whom the holy prophets foretold would be born wondrously of the Virgin, for the sake of the world: have mercy on us.

O holy Christ, master of the court of Heaven, to whom the highest of the angels, always standing by to carry out the divine will, sing a song of glory: have mercy on us.

O Christ, whom we on earth worship devoutly with humbled hearts, crying out to thee, tender Jesus, attend thou from heaven to our prayers: have mercy on us.

O Lord, nourishing Spirit, who art of one nature together with the Father and the Son, breathed forth from them both: have mercy on us.

O Lord, who appeared in shining dove-like form when Christ was baptized in the Jordan: have mercy on us.

O Lord, divine fire, inflame our hearts, that we may worthily and readily proclaim always: have mercy on us.
