MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

the sins of the world, that he might save it: have mercy on us.

O Lord, who givest the sevenfold gift of the Spirit, by whom both heaven and earth are filled: have mercy on us.

O Christ, only Son of God the Father, whom the holy prophets foretold would be born wondrously of the Virgin, for the sake of the world: have mercy on us.

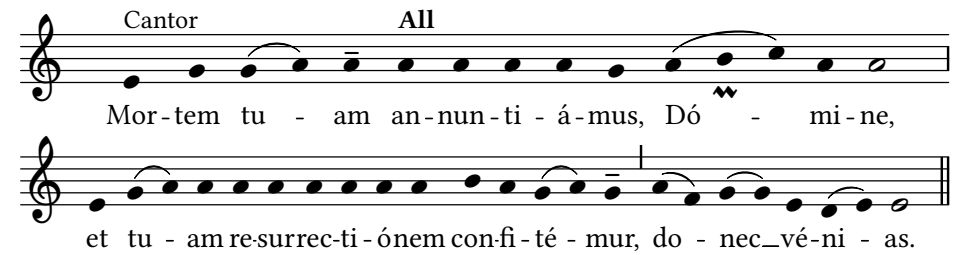

O holy Christ, master of the court of Heaven, to whom the highest of the angels, always standing by to carry out the divine will, sing a song of glory: have mercy on us.

O Christ, whom we on earth worship devoutly with humbled hearts, crying out to thee, tender Jesus, attend thou from heaven to our prayers: have mercy on us.

O Lord, nourishing Spirit, who art of one nature together with the Father and the Son, breathed forth from them both: have mercy on us.

O Lord, who appeared in shining dove-like form when Christ was baptized in the Jordan: have mercy on us.

O Lord, divine fire, inflame our hearts, that we may worthily and readily proclaim always: have mercy on us.

COMMUNION

Ant. Honóra Dóminum de tua sub-stántia, et de primitiis frugum tuárum: ut impleántur hórrea saturitáte, et vi-no torculária redundábunt.

Ant. Honor the LORD with thy sub-stance, and with the firstfruits of thy produce: that thy barns may be filed with abundance, and thy press overflow with wine.

Vv. Ps 111(112)

COMMUNION MEDITATION

Sweetest Bread, from heaven sent,
As the living nourishment
Of the faithful pilgrim soul.

Godhead we can ne'er defeat,
Though thy flesh we truly eat:
Grant us life without decay.

Lamb most meek and lamb most mild,
Paschal victim undefiled,
Satisfaction for the law.

Even to the guilty soul,
Give such gifts as make him whole;
Kindly purge his sin away.

Dearest Jesus! By thy will Earthly bread's appearance still
Veils thy godhead from our sight.

Make us one in thee, our sire;
Give us strength in combat dire,
Grant we may partake of thee.

Wondrous food! In us by grace
Restore the gifts our sins deface
Of the sev'nfold Spirit's might.

Furious though the flesh assail,
Grant we may not faint nor fail:
O, make us to live with thee!
