COMMUNION MEDITATION

Sweetest Bread, from heaven sent,
As the living nourishment
Of the faithful pilgrim soul.

Even to the guilty soul,
Give such gifts as make him whole;
Kindly wash his guilt away.

Kýrie, ignis divíne, péctora nostra succénde, ut digne páriter proclamáre póssimus semper: eléison.

O Lord, divine fire, inflame our hearts, that we may worthily and readily proclaim always: have mercy on us.

Lamb most meek and lamb most mild,
Paschal victim undefiled,
Satisfaction for the law.

Make us one in thee, our sire;
Give us strength in combat dire,
Grant we may partake of thee.

SANCTUS

See Music Issue, #854.

Dearest Jesus! by thy will
Earthly bread's appearance still
Veils thy godhead from our sight.

Furious though the flesh assail,
May we neither not faint nor fail:
O, make us to live with thee!

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

Wondrous food! in us by grace
Restore the gifts our sins deface
Of the sev'nfold Spirit's might.

Thus refreshéd by the flood
Of thy holy precious Blood,
And on thy blest Body fed,

Godhead we can ne'er defeat,
Though thy flesh we truly eat:
Grant us life without decay.

Chosen guests all may we be,
Unto all eternity
Round thy table gatheréd. Amen.
